■ FROM THE PASTOR

Living While Waiting

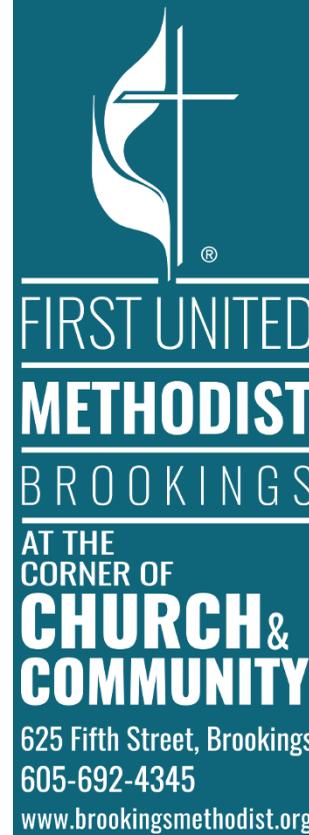

As I thought about this time in the life of our church recently, the image that came to mind was that of pregnancy. Waiting for the birth of a child is sometimes challenging, but as families wait, there are the tasks of everyday living that need to continue.

We are in a similar time of waiting. We know who our new pastor will be. But as we wait, we need to continue to live life—we need to continue to be in ministry in our community and beyond. Our fall programming will soon begin. Children will start Sunday School and confirmation and there will be opportunities for adults to grow in their faith. Choirs will be available for all our church family to contribute to worship. There will be opportunities for persons to participate in service and mission work options through the Harvest Table and Meals on Wheels, and teaching children and youth and giving leadership to youth groups. We will need persons to share in the ministry of hospitality. There will be funerals that will require our service and struggling families who will need us to walk along side of them. And all of us are charged with the responsibility of inviting persons who have no church home to join us. Living into our mission and ministry needs to continue.

As we wait, we are trying as best we can to hurry this pregnancy along. We are continuing to work with an immigration attorney and with someone in Senator John Thune's office. Please continue to pray for Pastor Pete and Jenny. And as we wait, know that it is your presence, your gifts, and your service that give life to our ministry.

I want to thank all of you for what you do. And I am grateful for the leadership of this church that seeks to keep us moving forward in the midst of this time of waiting.

Howard Grinager, Interim Pastor

Susan's Saga

The last Sunday of the month of August is celebrated as Bible Sunday in Mexico. It is a chance to re-focus on the centrality of God's Word in our lives.

However, if the Bible were only available in the original source languages (mostly Hebrew for the Old Testament and Koiné Greek for the New), then it would be as if this precious book were in chains. One wouldn't be able to open the covers to see what is inside, much less leaf through the pages, reading the content.

Bible translation can be likened to the key that unlocks the padlock holding the chains in place. Without translation, the original text would still be chained.

The majority of the Bible was first translated into English by John Wycliffe, who died in 1384. Later translators, such as William Tyndale and Miles Coverdale, continued the quest of having God's Word accessible to people in English. These early translators suffered for their desire to produce the Bible for English speakers, and many were persecuted and even burned at the stake.

There are now a variety of translations in English. They have the common purpose of making God's Word clear, so that we can grasp the essential life-giving message the Bible contains. However, there are still at least 1600 living languages in the world which do not yet have a translation. It is as if God's Word were still in chains for those people groups. Bible translation today continues to provide the key to unlocking God's Word.

Thank you for your part in being part of the process of providing the key for a group of Mixtec-speaking people in southern Mexico.

Susan Huggins

Susan Huggins is a daughter of this church serving in full-time ministry as a Bible translator among the Mixtec people of Oaxaca, Mexico. Susan's sending agency, Wycliffe Bible Translators, is a non-denominational organization; she raises her own funds to support this ministry.

#onething

Thank you to all who have contributed to the #onething August project - Back to School supplies to assist classroom teachers!

In September, our #onething will be Share the Warmth. Please bring new and gently used winter clothing to the onething tubs during the month of September to be distributed to families in need in early October.

We will accept coats, hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, and other winter outerwear.

Snowpants and boots are required for children to enjoy recess at school throughout the winter.

Please consider helping keep everybody warm this winter. Over 1,000 coats per year are shared with our area families in need.

Turkey Dinner Volunteers Needed

Signups for the Turkey Dinner will begin on Sunday, September 1. Please stop by the Welcome Centers in the Narthex and CLC before and after services. We need your help to work at the dinner, buy a turkey, or to make pies or salads. The Turkey Dinner will be held on Sunday, September 29, from 11:30a.m.-1:30p.m., with proceeds going towards our mission projects. Thank you so much for signing up! Missions Committee

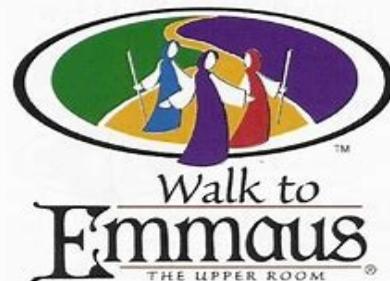

News from the FUMC Mission Committee

The FUMC Mission Committee has committed to maintaining covenant relationships with two missionaries. They are Teri/Walter Erbele and Ardell/Gorden Graner. Rev. Teri Erbele is a missionary with the GBGM of The United Methodist Church. Teri is assigned as co-pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Ketchikan, Alaska. Ketchikan is located on an island within the Tongass National Forest. Erbele's ministry is deeply involved in local care of the homeless. The second covenant is missionary Ardell Graner with the GBGM of The United Methodist Church serving within the Dominican Republic. Graner's mission focuses the development of Christian education/materials for some 70 Christian churches in the area. Please consider these two missionaries in your prayers and designated financial support.

Upcoming Dakotas Walk to Emmaus Events

The Walk to Emmaus is named so because the experience is very similar to the Bible story in Luke 24:13-34 in which the risen Christ joins the two disciples who were walking from Jerusalem to Emmaus. By walking with Jesus, reflecting on the scriptures, breaking bread together, and sharing their resurrection stories, the disciples experienced Christ's presence and their hearts burned within them. The Walk to Emmaus is your opportunity to walk with the Lord and rediscover God's burning presence in your life. Walk to Emmaus is a 72-hour experience starting Thursday evening at 7:00p.m. and ending around 7:00p.m. on Sunday.

Participants are asked to separate themselves from their daily activities for this time period. There is no "physical walking distance," but rather a "walk" with others in fellowship, learning, and fun. Upcoming 2019 Dakotas Walk to Emmaus: Men's October 3-6, and Women's October 10-13, at Storm Mountain, Rapid City, SD. You can find more information at the website: <http://dakotaswalk.org/> or visit with pilgrims including Steve Eliason, Charlie Schnabel, Linda Hai, Barb Meyer, and Nancy Bohlen.

Together Campaign Update

We would like to thank our church family for their wonderful support of our Together Campaign. To date we have received almost $480,000 toward the needed improvements in our church and for reducing our debt.

The tuck pointing was paid for and completed in the late spring. As this article is being written, a crew is here removing the old boiler in preparation for the installation of the new one, and because of your generous giving we have all the funds in place to pay for it. Our building debt has been reduced to a little more than $200,000, and as gifts continue to be received, that number will continue to decrease. We have also received dedicated gifts for some of the other projects that were a part of the campaign, and we are securing bids for those at the present time. None of this would have happened if it had not been for your prayerful financial support.

We continue to seek to be good stewards of the gifts you have entrusted to us. As you continue to fulfill your intended gifts, we will be able to complete more of our Together Campaign goals. If there are those who were not able to make a commitment or a gift to the campaign before, know that your new gifts would be very much appreciated and needed.

Thanks again for all that you do to give life to the vital ministry we seek to be able to do in Jesus' name.
Lynn Darnall, Keith Goehring, and Tom Becker

Home Visiting Volunteers Needed—Put Your Love in Action

The Health Ministry Team is looking for a dedicated group of people to consider visiting with homebound church members. We will provide training and support for this very important mission. Please speak with or email Joanie Holm at jholm229@gmail.com, or let someone on the staff know of your interest. Our current visitors report that the visits are a win-win, with benefits for both the person visited and the person who makes the visit. Put your Love in Action and become a visitor!

Library News

The UMW Reading Program has had some changes which include: The New World Outlook is no longer being published. Response Magazine is now a bi-monthly publication. Reading the books for the different plans has remained the same (e.g. Plan 1: read one book from each of the five categories and read the Response Magazine each month). The five categories are Education for the Mission, Leadership Development, Nurturing for Community, Social Action, and Spiritual Growth. The church has only purchased thirteen books for the UMW Reading Program this year. They have been processed and are located on the ‘Good Reads and New to the Library’ cart.

We have processed the following books that have been donated—the list is as follows: Gentle Mercies by Hal Haralson – Stories of faith in faded blue jeans; Who I Am In Christ by Neil T. Anderson – A devotional; A B Cs of Healthy Grieving – A companion for everyday coping; About Dying by Sara Bonnett Stein – An open family book for parents and children together; The Dyslexia Empowerment Plan by Ben Foss – A blueprint for renewing your child’s confidence and love of learning; and How Soccer Explains the World by Franklin Foer. We thank all those who have donated the books to the library.

- 1) Take a selfie or have someone take a candid picture of you and your family with a smart phone.
- 2) Email the photo to the pastor's computer - PastorHoward@brookingsmethodist.org. Be sure to include the names of all the people in the picture, including last names.
- 3) You may submit a printed picture to the church office or Narthex Welcome Center on Sunday mornings. Be sure this is labeled legibly with all first and last names.
- 4) You may request someone take a picture with their smart phone of you and your family on a Sunday at the Narthex Welcome Center. Be sure they have all of the names to be included. Have them email the photo and names to the above address.
